An Act to establish and provide for the maintenance of the University of New Mexico, the Agricultural College and Agricultural Experiment Station, the School of Mines, and the Insane Asylum, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico:

Section. 1. There is hereby created and established within and for the Territory of New Mexico, an Institution of learning to be known as "The University of New Mexico". Said institution is hereby located at or near the town of Albuquerque, in the county of Bernalillo within two miles north of railroad avenue in said town, upon a tract of good high and dry land, of not less than twenty acres suitable for the purposes of such institution, which said land shall within six months from the passage of this act, be donated and conveyed, free of any cost and expense, to the Territory of New Mexico by Ed. H. Meyer provided that no improvements or buildings as hereinafter provided for, shall be made or erected upon such land until such deed is duly executed, recorded and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory as herein after provided.

Section. 2. There is also hereby created and established an institution of learning, to be known as the "Agricultural College and Agricultural Station of New Mexico". Said institution is hereby located at or near the town of Las Cruces in the county of Dona Ana, upon a tract of land of not less than one hundred (100) acres, contiguous to the main Las Cruces irrigating ditch, south of said town and now owned by Jacob Schaublin, and which said land shall within six months from the passage of this act, be donated and conveyed by said Schaublin free of any cost and expense, to the Territory of New Mexico for such purpose; provided that no improvements or buildings as hereinafter provided for, shall be made or erected upon such land until deed is duly executed, recorded and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory as hereinafter provided.

Section. 3. There is ~~hereby~~ ~~also~~ hereby created and established within and for the Territory of New Mexico, an institution of learning to be known as "The New Mexico School of Mines". Said institution is hereby located upon a tract of land of not less than twenty acres, suitable for the purposes of such institution, which shall be donated and conveyed by a good and sufficient deed to the Territory of New Mexico by the owners thereof, free of cost and expense to said Territory, which deed shall be executed within six months from the passage of this act, and no improvement or building hereinafter provided for, shall be made or erected upon such land until such deed is duly executed, recorded and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory.

name and style, of "The Regents of The University of New Mexico" with the right, as such, of suing and being sued, of contracting and being contracted with, of making and using a common seal and altering the same at pleasure.

Section 11. The board of Regents of the University of New Mexico shall meet and organize by the election of its officers at Albuquerque in said Bernalillo county on the second Wednesday in November A.D. 1889. The officers then elected shall hold their offices until the second Monday in March A.D. 1891 when their successors shall be elected and said elections shall occur annually on the second Monday in March in each year thereafter, all officers so elected shall hold their offices until their successors are duly elected and qualified. At such elections they shall elect a president and a Secretary and Treasurer from their number. The persons so elected as secretary and treasurer shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties as such, execute a good and sufficient bond to the territory of New Mexico, with two or more sufficient sureties, residents of this territory, in the penal sum of not less than twenty thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such secretary and treasurer, and that he will faithfully account for and pay over to the person or persons entitled thereto all moneys which shall come into his hands as such officer, which said bond shall be approved by the Governor of the territory and shall be filed with the territorial secretary.

Section 12. The president of said board shall be the chief executive officer, shall preside at all meetings thereof (except that when he is absent the board may appoint a president pro tem) and sign all instruments required to be executed by said Board. He shall, also generally direct the affairs of said University, nominate and by and with the advice and consent of the board of regents, appoint all professors, tutors, instructors and other employees necessary to the proper conduct of said University; and the like number shall be determined by the amount of their respective salaries, subject to the provisions of this act. The secretary and treasurer shall be
